Pachinko Reflects Spirit Of Japan Today: Masaoka

Via the so-called Wings of New Japan, Japan Air Lines, the writer has just returned from his second hurried trip to the land of his parents. Two years ago, accompanied by his wife, he made his first visit to the Far East.

Outwardly, great and good changes have taken place in Japan in the past two years, but the fundmental questions that haunted the nation remain unresolved — an unsound, depressing economy and overpopulation pressures that threaten to become worse.

During the past biennium, a tremendous building program has been going on, with skyscraper office buildings dominating municipal construction, though low-cost housing too has made giant strides.

The stores seem to be overstocked, contrasted to two years ago when many of the smaller shops particularly appeared to be hard put to find enough merchandise for their shelves.

On the streets, the people seem to be better dressed, in relatively new-looking clothes. The girls particularly seem to be more at ease in their western-style clothes. And, of course, the number of American GIs is conspicuously fewer. There seems to be considerably less noise too, what with the cabbies less inclined to lean continuously on their horns.

Pachinko, which the writer thought two years ago was only a passing craze, is more popular than ever, with the only air-conditioned businesses in many communities being these same pachinko parlors.

Perhaps pachinko, an upright kind of pinball game which pays off in merchandise that can be sold almost on the premises for a few yen, reflects the present day spirit of Japan — gambling what little they have for something just a little better, in the hope that luck will be with them in their desperate struggle for existence.

SAISEI-KAI FUNDS TO BE DISPOSED BY NISEI LEADERS

Disposal of the $10,000 Saisei-Kai (welfare foundation) funds will be decided largely by responsible community leaders, probably mostly Nisei, according to the interested Issei who were concerned with the funds in pre-war days. This decision was made at the last meeting of the group Monday.

It has been proposed that the JCCA should have the main share of responsibility in the handling of the funds, and on a national basis. When the group meets again later in February, invitations will be extended to the presidents, past and present, of the local JCCA chapter.

by HARRY KIMURA

Shiga, who is running for a seat in the House of Representatives, is rated the No. 3 Communist in Japan, following Kyuichi Tokuda and Sanzo Nozaka. All went underground in June, 1950, when the United States occupation cracked down on Reds in Japan after outbreak of the Korean war.

Canada has always looked up to the United States as the more experienced brother. But the strong influence of the democratic republic in world affairs and the contrasting lesser importance of Canada has made the northern neighbor generally disdainful of the U.S. attitude of superiority (At least, many Canadians think the Americans feel superior).

We are only stating facts here. We are not stating any opinion on this relationship between the two countries.

However, in confining the subject to the Japanese Americans and the Japanese Canadians, we do feel that there is not enough friendly communication between the two groups. Surely there would be much to be gained in brotherhood and in understanding the problems of the parallel situations if we were to know more about each other.

Some statistics might be interesting: there are 140,000 Japanese Americans, 24,000 Japanese Canadians. JCCA's older brother, the Japanese American Citizens League, or JACL has some 12,000 members in 87 chapters, according to the Pacific Citizen, official JACL publication. The Canadian organization has about 25 local chapters, in which probably half are regularly active (no figures on membership).

My Most Unforgettable Character

HE WALKS into the office looking like a softened edition of Toulouse-Lautrec. His morning smile is quizzical, and can mean anything from a conventional "Good Morning, how are you?" to "You women are such peculiar things but God, wouldn't it be a dull place without you!" It may be 15 below zero weather. "Only three more months to spring!" he says, as he blows his nose and rubs his hands for warmth, "just six more pay days! Isn't that wonderful!" Or with perspiration running down his back, he will announce "Just six more weeks and we'll be getting those cool, brisk autumn mornings. Isn't that wonderful!" And to him it is wonderful. He means it.

He begins at 9 and no one can say that he does not get his work done. His is a peculiar knack of getting things done in the midst of complete chaos. And it is quite the usual thing to find him burrowing underneath a landslide of papers and documents looking for that missing one he just "had a minute ago." He is the happiest man I have ever met. Nothing ruffles him. Does his "in" basket spill over with urgent work? He merely starts at the top and does what he can. He knows he'll get to the bottom eventually and that's time enough to worry about it. Either then, or perhaps the instigator of the problem will have forgotten all about it, in which case the problem is no longer a problem. After two hours of concentrated work, he will stop to plot out a graph for his young son who has suddenly developed a keen interest in the phenomena of sunrise and sunset, or to sketch his own design for the fireplace he is constructing for his home out in the country. And he religiously stops for coffee break twice a day, crises or no crises.

At exactly 4:45 p.m. he puts on his coat and hat, smiles a cheerful "Goodnight" and rushes for the train, quite unconcerned about the pile of unfinished work on his desk, quite unconcerned even when his superior may be doing overtime and eyeing his departure with a look of annoyance.

Pierre Sansregret — that is not his real name — is one of the most happy men I have ever met. One gets the impression that he has taken time to discover what life is all about and has learned to cope with it. In a world of hurry and bustle, he seems to have infinite time for everything. It is not unusual for colleagues to go in to see Pierre on a technical problem in the field of radio activity, and to come out with more insight into drama, poetry, religion or human nature, along with the solution to the technical problem.

Pierre never really talks about himself. In the course of his explanation of radio frequencies, he may make a point of comparison between Montreal and Alexandria. And it is only then that one discovers that as a RCAF man during

Taro Yashima On Children

IT IS with some hesitancy that I stand on this honorable platform to speak to this audience — all of whom have been having special experiences with children.

As I have never made any academic study of children and never even read an article written about children, I cannot possibly consider myself as a specialist about children. My feeling is very confidenceless.

Anyhow, I begin: I was born and grew up in a southern village in Japan, and from the time I was a little boy I was very fond of the children younger than myself.

Even in the period of my early youth when I was suspicious and nihilistic toward everything and everybody, with no faith in the world at all, I could not be negative in my feeling toward the children. In that one gift — to feel the unique beauty, the innocent and helpless beauty of children — I think I was a little unusual.

Years later I was asked to put all my knowledge and capability into teaching an art-class of children in a mission school. I did not know how to begin.

My son had begun to use a pencil when he was about a year and a half old, and he became far more eloquent in his watercolors than his speaking when he was four years old. It seemed that other children must have the same talent for expression, and somehow we managed, as each day brought more experience.

One day a mother came to the class with a three-year-old boy. He carried a large shopping bag in which was a clean sheet of paper and crayon. He came stepping inch-by-inch, very frightened, and it was obvious that he did not know what drawing is. He sat for a long time without doing anything at all, even after I had asked him, "Can you make a triangle?" and he had answered, "Yes".

Finally he made a tiny, tiny triangle way down in the corner of his paper. His classmates teased him, saying, "It looks like the head of an ant."

"Yes, it is the head of an ant," he said, and put body and legs to it. Then he made a house from a large triangle and it grew into a trolley car, and then he made more ants — hundreds of ants and more houses and streets — until he had created a "City scene of ants" such as no one could possibly have imagined.

In some such way as this the thirty children in my art class were able to do splendid drawings which even their parents could not believe.

This was the period of the Japanese invasion of China, and more and more men around us were being drafted and returned dead. I myself was thinking of death and also waiting for a draft paper every day. I did not want to die and found out that it was because I was positively attached to the people. At the same time I could not take up my paint brushes anymore, as I was realizing that the meaning of all the canvases I had done was unbearably shallow.

One day I was on a trolley car. I saw a middle-aged man with his son, about the age of my five-year-old. I could be sure that the man also was expecting a draft paper any day, and was trying not to waste a moment with his son. I could see it in the way he held the boy on his lap. He covered his son's knees with both his hands. I never had felt the meaning of the human body so deeply and of course I never had made it reflect on my canvas. I thought that to present such meanings, I would have to make a new study from the very beginning and I wanted to study the Western masters to see how they had painted what they understood.

I am sure this decision in such a difficult period was also due largely to the inspiration that came from the fresh vision and imagination of the children in my art class.

AND SO we came to this country. Our life here was completely separated from children as we left our son on the other side. It was ten years later and two years after the end of World War II before our son, now fifteen, could join us. At about the same time our daughter was born.

And then for almost four years I was beaten flat by an ulcer. But, being flat, I had plenty of time to think and it was inevitable that I should check over my life's experiences and re-form myself and my art from the very beginning.

And, very fortunately and unexpectedly this struggle was helped by the fact that I was able to live with our new-born daughter so intimately. I was able not only to observe every moment of our daughter's growth but also to root out of my mind a certain prejudice toward women that had existed in me more or less as a result of my upbringing in Japan. Our daughter, who was two years old or so, used to put her cheek on mine whenever I had an ulcer pain.

If it were not for my illness I never would have known that such a gentle human being could exist in such a little helpless baby.

I wanted to thank this little life and tell some nice stories to made this little girl happy.

Although I had stories which were told by my grandmother and father and read by myself, somehow they all seemed lifeless to express my feeling. So then I thought that perhaps if I could recall the joyful experiences of my childhood and tell them to her just as they happened they might recreate the same joy in her. The Village Tree was a tree which stood deep in my memory as a symbol of my childhood. I had no idea of publishing that village tree. I just asked myself: why that tree stands so patiently in my memory; why that tree could be a symbol of my childhood. Why so?

Starting from such questions, I got closer to that tree and looked up from this side and that side. I climbed up on every branch and swam around under the tree to find out the reasons which made the joy in the memories. As I stated before, I did it for our daughter.

Plenty to Watch was done in the same way. It takes a long long time to make a book for a child.

Often before, I had wanted to publish picture books for children. The reason I was not able to realize my wish is that I went about it the wrong way. Finding the right way has taken half a life-time. But still I have found it and I know that the impressions we have been getting from the outside world are astonishingly richer in us than we realize until we recall them for a child who is dear to us.

Well, as I mentioned in the beginning, I am not a specialist about children. But as a human being I cannot help imagining that children will grow and face many sorts of struggles that may even bring them to despair at times. I cannot help hoping that children ... through all their difficulties ... I cannot help having the desire to give them something to help them through ... children who are innocent, helpless and beautiful and ready to grow with splendid possibilities.

The world is wide. Everything in the world can be the subject of a book for children. But I think the theme of them should be "This earth is beautiful!" "Living is wonderful!" "Believe in mankind!"

These are only things I can think and talk as a newest author-artist for children. I thank you for your patience in listening to my English.

About Taro Yashima

The well-known Japanese author-artist of The New Sun, Horizon Is Calling and, more recently The Village Tree and Plenty to Watch, came to the U.S. in 1939 when life in Japan became too uncomfortable as a result of his political cartoons opposing militarism. In 1949 the U.S. Congress granted the author, his wife and family permanent residence in appreciation of Yashima's wartime services with the Office of Strategic Services.

Last November Yashima (whose real name is Jun Iwamatsu) was honored by the New York Library Book Festival of 1954 for Plenty to Watch. His discussion on the inspiration he has derived from children was an address at the festival.

この五條の橋は、清水橋ともいう。洛中からこれを渡ってまっすぐのところに清水寺があるからで、平治元年、平清盛と源義朝が合戰したころは、この川上に祇園橋、またの名を四條橋と呼ばれる橋があった。

それは合戰のとき、五條橋もろとも燒かれてしまい、以来十五年、五條橋だけは新しくかけられたが、四條の橋はかけられていない。

だから加茂川にかけられている橋は、このころ、五條の橋一本だけであった。

「おそい、おそい」

約束をたがえるような[illegible]いつも怒って[illegible]相撲[illegible]なのに、辨慶は、しきりに腹を立て、橋の向うを睨みつけ、寒さを拂うために兩手を打ち振ったり、高下駄を踏みならしたりして、ぶつぶつ言っている。

ふだんは思慮にとぼしい人間でもないのに、腹を立てすぎると辨慶は、子供のように單純になってしまう。

自分にも責任はあるが、おのれひとり山から放逐される覺えはない、と考わると、事の黒白をきめるまでは默ってはおれぬ、と、圖に思い込み、とにかく牧盛に會わねば、とだけしか念頭にない辨慶であった。

加茂川を渡るのはこの五條橋一本、と頭から決めてしまい、舟で川を渡るところまで思い至らないのは、腹を立てすぎているからであった。

愚か者で亂暴な法師が待ち伏せております、と牧盛の屋形から、家來が舟で川を渡り、西八條の清盛のところまで注進に走ったかも知れない、とは考えず、馬鹿正直に辨慶は、さっきから牧盛の行列を待ちうけていた。

つぶやいて、また橋の向うを見てから、

「や」

辨慶はじっと眼をすえた。

雲が、すうっと月をかすめ、橋の上から向うにかけて、黒い大きな手でなでたように、かげってきた。そのかげの中に、ぽつりと白い人の姿が、つい浮いて見える。

牧盛の行列なれば、松明の火が見え、大ぜいの供がついているはずだが、それはひとりきりであった。

八島太郎

八島太郎畫伯の新著「道草いっぱい」を推薦圖書に選んだニューヨーク市立圖書館は、一九五四年度書籍係に、ロサンゼルスから八島畫伯を招き、米國人著述出版關係者約三百人に對し、兒童圖書に關する講演をしてもらつた。そのとき八島畫伯が行つた講演の原英文を借りることが出來たので今日の英文らんに掲載した。「日本語にしてみませんか」とあつたのでこれは私が書いてみた。原文の味が出ないのは素より私の罪である。

（梅月生）

この演壇に立つて、兒童に關して特別な經驗を持つて居られる皆樣にお話することを、私は多少躊躇したのでした。私は、子供について何等學問的な研究をしたこともなければ、子供に關して書いた本を讀んだこともないし、私自身を兒童についての專門家などとは兄も考えることは出來ませんので、皆さんの前に立つては全く自信は持てないのです。

さて、私は日本の南端の村に生れてそこで育ちましたが、私は少年の頃から、私よりも年下の子供らが大好きでした。青年時代に入つて、あらゆるもの、あらゆる人に對して懐疑的で、世の中すべてに何等の信を持ち得なかつた時でも、子供好きという私の氣持だけは否定できませんでした。子供らの獨特の美しさ、天眞らんまんで無邪氣な子供らの美しさには、いささかの疑いも持ち得なかつた私は、ちよつと變り者だつたと言えましよう。

幾年、私は、ミッションスクールで、子供らに圖畫を教えることになつたのですが、私は、どうやつて教えたらよいか見當がつきませんでした。私の息子は、生後一年半頃からペンシルを持つようになり、四歳の時には、口よりも水彩繪具を使つた方がはるかに雄辯にものを言えるようになりましたが、他の子供らも同じような表現の才能を持つ筈だと思つた私達は、どうにかやつて行き、日毎に更に經驗を積んだのでした。

或る日、一人の母親が三歳になる男の子を連れて學校に來ました。この子は白紙とクレヨンを入れた大きなショッピング・バッグをさげていましたが、何か非常に恐れた格好で、一歩ずつそろそろと近ずいて來ました。繪をかくとは、どんなことだか、彼は知らなかつたのです。で、永い間、何もしないで居り、私が「三角を書けますか?」と聞い、彼が「ハイ」と答えてからもしばらくは手をつけなかつたのでした。

ようやくこの子は、紙の小さな三角を一つ書きました。これを見た他の子供らは、「それは蟻(アリ)の頭のようではないか」とひやかしました。「そうだよ、これはアリの頭だよ」と彼は答え、アリの身体と足を書き足しました。それから彼は、もつと大きな三角から家を書き、電車も書きました。それからもつともつとアリを――數百匹のアリと更に多くの家と街路を――誰れもが想像することが出來なかつた「アリの街の風景」を創り出すまで書きつづけたのでした。

こんなようにして、私の圖畫のクラスにいた三十名の子供らは、彼等の父母でさえ信じられぬような立派な繪を書くことが出來るようになつたのでした。

フォラム 紙上討論

一佛教信者

一月二十六日付本紙上に「反省を寄す」と題した同鄉生の書かれた一文が發表され、一讀した結果小生に興えてくれた印象は、筆者はあたかも味元君が暴擧をしたかの如く攻撃し、彼の親達さえその暴擧の責任があるが如きように感じられたことである。同君の親にはあの公開文には全然責任がないと信ずる。そして味元君は未成年者ではありません。

小生は、斯る青年が斷乎たる意志でアイマイを勇敢に公表したその態度をみてかつての小生の時代を思い出して理解している次第であります。教育あり、前途有望な青年諸君は東西を問わず、新らしき時代にもつと合理的、理想的なる世界を求める時期でありましょう。

單なる經驗一本論者はこれを否定するどころか輕蔑視する傾向があります。二世諸氏が教育修了後、各々廣大な社會に大いに活躍している。その人々の新らしい考え方や傾向を制限されたる一方的な經驗で解決は出來ないだろうと思う。必要なるものこそ完全なる理解である。暗殺直前の犬養氏の「話せばわかる」という正しき理解につとめる心構の必要性は私達の是非共持つべきものであろう。

同鄉生はその經驗の大なることを文中に記されてあるが、私達の經驗は個々に決定され、時期と場所を非常に制限されているが、その經驗が絶對的な教訓だとは誰でもいえるものではありません。特に佛陀の場合に、我々の人生の有意義を理解するのに大切だが、それは教訓以上の重要な深い意味が含まれています。まず味元君の文をもう一度感情をぬきにして精讀してみましよう。

同鄉生は味元君に向つて「あまり大切な學問を片方の變な方へ持つて行かず、正常に使い給え」と忠告している。あまり大切な學問とは何ですか? 學問は實際に社會に利用してこそその價値があるのではないでしようか。變な方とはアイマイであり、具體的に何という意味ですか。正常だからこそ味元君は書いたものです。異常者の書いたものならば新聞社は發表しなかつたでしよう。

このような文は本人に單なる反撥心を與れ、却つて反省をみることは困難だろう。感情に走つてアイマイな言葉で表現せず、もつと具體的、論理的に批判文をつづり、その上に反省を促すべきではなかろうか。

味元君も批判のみを目的として書いたものでなく、目と腦を通じて新らしい佛教的世界を探求する熱情から已むなく公開文を發表したものと思う。その精神を理解した立場から反省を求めるべきでありましよう。

かくの如き態度こそ一世と二世とのより深き理解となり、家庭に圓満をみる唯一の道であると考えられ、他に反省を促すまえに自らを顧みる事が必要と信じます。「自分をひねつて人の痛さを知る」という事です。

小生はあの公開文に對する絶對の賛成者ではありませんが、如上の點から熱考した結果、今こそカナダ各地の佛教會寺院の完成をみつつあるとき、新らしく力強い佛教の進む道を切り開くため、信徒が一丸となつてつくすべきであると信じます。

安心できるカナダの三分類

新移民に對する買物心得として當局が發表している鑵詰フルーツ及び野菜の品質見分けは日系主婦にとつて新しいことではないが、念のためここに和譯してみよう。

△主婦が鑵詰フルーツや鑵詰野菜の買出しをするときこれらの中味を調べてみたいとどれだけ思うことでしよう。美しい色合のレベル商品名そして他と比べて安い値段にどれだけ影響されて鑵のレベルに書かれているファンシー、FANCY チョイス CHOICE または スタンダード STANDARD の文字を見逃していることか。

▽鑵詰にされるフルーツや野菜はすべてオタワ農務省の檢査官により檢査され、鑵詰は一、二、三等に分別される。これは生産物の色、質、その他をくらべて優劣をつけるのである。すなわちファンシーは一番上等の品質のもの、チョイスはファンシーよりやや劣る品質のもの、スタンダードは食用に合格したものだが、品質はあまりよくないものである。

▽鑵詰のレベルを吟味すれば以上の三つに分類されていないものはないのだからそれによつて中味の品質を安心して知ることができるわけである。

感謝

本紙の事業と活躍を御支援下さつて次の諸氏から御寄附を戴きましたことを深謝申上げ、一そうの努力を誓い、御援助を願います。

ソ連から國交調整申入れ

鳩山首相は直ちに外務省に交渉開始を指令

【東京發】ドミニツキー元駐日ソ連代表部首席代表が先週鳩山首相を訪ね「日ソ國交正常化に關するソ連政府の文書」を手交したとモスクワ放送したが、鳩山首相は卅日、兩國關係の正常化をできるだけ速かに實現するよう、その交渉を外務省に指令したと發表した。このソ連の申入れについて來る金曜の閣議で相談される筈だがそれ以前に鳩山首相はドミニツキー首席代表に回答するものとみられているが、

ソ連との領土問題と抑留日本人の問題など解決をはかる以前に日本とソ連間の戰爭狀態の終結を宣言するのが先決問題である

と鳩山首相は語つている。一方重光外相はこの問題について「ソ連在京機關のある人物から首相に日ソ國交調整の交渉開始を申入れてきたことは事實だがその文書は公文でない。政府はこれがソ連の正式意志表示とすればそれに應じるもよいとの態度であり、いま正式意向であるか否かたしかめている最中だ」と述べている。しかしドミニツキー首席代表は「あれは本國政府の命令にもとずくステートメントである。この問題について私が個人として鳩山首相と相談することは出來ないことである」と語つている。

ソ連とかけ引

【東京發】澤田國連大使は日本政府の指令にもとずき、ソ連代表に對し日ソ間の戰爭狀態終結交渉の條件としてソ連は日本の國連加入を支持することにつき折衝することになつていることとされる。

米軍は引揚げよ

ソ連提出の休戰決議の主眼

【ニューヨーク、國連發】中共本土沖合の島をめぐる臺灣との爭いを中止させることを討議するためのニュージランドが提唱、國連安全保障理事會が月曜から開始されたが、これに先立ちソ連代表は西部國家がどうしたものかと下相談しているスキに、日曜日にな「臺灣方面における休戰並に同方面より米軍は一齊撤退」という決議案を流布、ソ連は臺灣を中心とする區域のごたごたを解決する方法として同方面の休戰を提唱すると共にその條件として米軍は即時撤退すべきであると中共に對する米國の侵略をこつぴどく攻擊、この問題を安保理で論議するに當り中共代表の參加を求めるという意見に大きい重力を加えることになつたとみられる。ニュージランド、英、佛、米など安保理委員國代表は中共代表の參加を極力反對する國府とあくまで中共の出席を主張するソ連との板バサミを豫期していろいろ起るべき事態に打つ手を相談中である。

カナダ首相ネールと要談

【ロンドン發】月曜から行われた英連邦首相會議のためロンドンに到着したサン・ロラン首相の宿舍に、ネール首相は會議のはじまる以前約一時間にわたつて懇談した。ネール首相は臺灣を中心とする緊迫した事態について「アジア國のアジア見解」をサン・ロラン首相に說明したものといわれている。會談後サン・ロラン首相は「國際情勢というものは見ている者の立つている位置によつて異る姿でうつるものであることを興味深く味つた」と述べた。またサン・ロラン首相に同伴したピアソン外相はわかに記者團會見を行い「もし中共が『休戰』の話に乘つてくれなければ西部國家は太平洋上における悲慘な衝突を引きのばす策の施しようがなく、今後二週間以內が最も危機をはらんでいる」と事態の重大さを強調した。

僅か一弗で工場敷地

ほしいだけ賣ります

オ州ジョジャン・ベイの主要港オウエン・サウンド市のサーヴエント市長は、市の發展策として次のような新手を案出、話題となつている。

▽美しい色刷りのパンフレット數百枚を同市長が各方面に配送したがその內容はオウエン・サウンド市のもちろん宣傳文、それに加えて市の中心から一マイル半しか離れていない地域に工場を建てたい事業家には、工場敷地としてほしいだけの土地をタッタ一弗で賣りますがいかが？

▽それはかりでなく、ベストの勞働力も十分に提供できますし、市の生活狀態もベスト。全く好條件ぞろいであります。もしこの市外に工場敷地をお買いなる計書なら、同封の一弗札を使つて直ちに市長まで申込んでもらいたい。

「新改造」に

執筆せぬ十四氏

【東京通信】雜誌「改造」を發行している改造社では、さきほど同雜誌の編集局全員を解雇したが、その成行きは文壇で見守られていたところ先週、十四氏の執筆者が山本社長ら會社側の編集する雜誌には、今後一切執筆せず、側面から解雇された舊編集局を支持する旨申入れを行い、趣意書を各方面に回した。趣意書の內容は「新編集局は全く信用できない。「改造」を守ろうとしている舊編集局の態度を認めない」というもので執筆を拒否したメンバーは青野季吉、臼井吉見、中島健藏、大宅壯一、丹羽文雄、豐島與志雄、阿部知二、尾崎士郎、廣津和郎、中野好夫、中野重治、高見順、龜井勝一郎、井伏鱒二氏ら。

廣島に原子力工場の建設案

【ワシントン時事通信】民主黨のシドニー・イエーツ下院議員は先週末、廣島に平和のための原子力工場を建設する法案を議會に提出した。この案によると米國政府は日本政府と協力して同工場を建設することになつているが、廣島に原子力工場を建設する案は昨年九月原子力委員會により提唱されたものである。

緊縮豫算へ

一億弗を節約

【オタワ發】ハリス藏相は先週末下院に四月一日から向う一カ年間にわたる歲費豫算案を提出したが、オタワ政府を切り廻していくのに四十八億二千六百九十万弗を計上しているが、これは三月末で締切る今會計年度の總支出額より一億一千百萬弗の減少で、ハリス藏相は各省に通達、できるだけ費用を節約した豫算を出すことを促し、いわゆる緊縮豫算をめざして來たわけである。各省の豫算は從つて今會計年度の豫算より三・四パーセント減となつており、また國防軍備費も一億三千三百萬弗も減らしている。これは主に歐洲の友邦國に對する武器彈藥の援助をぐんと減らした結果によるものである。

初の海上大演習

自衛隊が二月下旬に實施

【東京時事通信】海上自衛隊は一九五四年度業務計畫にもとずき二月廿一日から廿八日まで豐後水道を中心として初の綜合實地演習を行う豫定である。この演習には自衛艦隊の大部分および橫須賀、吳、佐世保各地方隊の一部が參加し、海上幕僚長長澤海將が統轄する。この演習は船團護衛、港灣防禦、掃海などにつき綜合的な實地演習を行うことを目的としており、演習區域は豐後水道から紀伊水道にいたる九州、四國沿岸海面である。

十三万弗稼ぐ

神奈川の密柑農家

神奈川みかんのカナダ向け輸出總計は二十万八千四百二十八箱、最高の輸出高を記錄した。輸出價格は一箱六十五セントなので、輕く十三万五千四百七十八弗の外貨をかせいだわけで、日本圓にして四千八百七十七万二千圓がとこ舞いこんだ勘定になる。五四年は豐作で內地價格が安いから農家はホクホク、一箱六十五セント、邦貨二百三十四圓。一箱に約百圓の經費がかかるので差引き百三十四圓が農家の手に入る。內地價格でゆくと賣書りの農家の手取りは七十三圓位なので、輸出の方が遙かに儲つた計算になつた。

Femme Fare

the war, he had shunted around from Africa to Egypt, to Newfoundland, Paris, India, England and Scotland. Some one of us has never seen a nebula. He will ... the library until he has found a photo showing a cluster of stars — and will explain the heavenly systems with infinite patience. Only then will we discover that at one time he had been an instructor at a boys' college and loved it. And one discovers other things . . . of Pierre growing up a French Catholic, of his probing mind, his growth beyond the simple concepts of his childhood . . . his interest in Bertrand Russell's books when he was 17.

Pierre enjoys every minute of his life. He became quite worried about a rubber plant in the office. "You know, I think that brown marking is fungi". "Oh", said a secretary. "Mr. Sansregret, you've studied horticulture!" "O, I wouldn't say that. It wasn't quite that formal," replied Pierre. "I enrolled for a series of lectures — a group of two men — myself and another gardening enthusiast — and six old ladies. The six old ladies were interested in house plants." He smiled as if that had been quite a rare experience, and then added, "And I learned how to grow African violets!"

Pierre Sansregret has his feet on the ground. He regards his 9 to 4:45 stint at the office as "pleasant routine". He would rather do without work, but since it is a source which provides a roof over his head, some warmth, some means of nourishment, he comes in every day to do his job as a coordinating engineer in just about the same attitude that a farmer goes out to plant his row of potatoes. He could go dig ditches instead, but he finds engineering the least soul-disturbing. He says "I know about engineering. But what do I know about ditches?" The period 9 to 4:45 he strives to get through with a minimum of stress, for there are the remaining hours of his 24-hour day . . . all his very own, to do with what he will.

Pierre is not a wealthy man. His salary for the amount of work he does in his own individual way, is not phenomenal. He would not mind more money, but he cannot see himself developing ulcers for a few more dollars. He will tell you naively that his two children sometimes feel that they are socially unacceptable because the Sansregrets do not own a television set. But he adds, his wife is very happy with a much-needed washing machine.

Pierre Sansregret has taken hold of life and has made it his source of happiness. He has developed a rare sense of balance which enables him to put each thing in its rightful place, and consequently, he has infinite time to enjoy every minute of his life.

RAYMOND BUSSEIS COP ALBERTA HOOP HONORS

by HARRY KIMURA

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — Raymond's powerful Busseis walloped the short-handed Coaldale-Taber Combines 60-29 to walk off with the handsome Raymond Motors Challenge Trophy in a one-day basketball tournament on Jan. 22 before only a handful of fans at the spacious Lethbridge Sports Centre gym.

Busseis' Sam Koyata was presented the Jack's Coffee Shop MVP award by Jack Maruyama in behalf of Jack Tajiri. An All-Tourney team was picked as follows: Hank Hasegawa (Butte), Jack Maruyama (C-T Combines), Roy Yamazaki (Lethbridge Jr. JCCAs), Mas Kitagawa and Sam Koyata (Raymond).

Raymond moved into the finals with an easy 68-41 triumph over defending Lethbridge, while Coaldale-Taber edged the scrappy Picture Butte cagers 37-33. Kitagawa and Koyata were big guns with 21 and 20 points in Raymond's semi-final win. Roy Yamazaki popped in 13 for the losing JCCAs. Combine pivotman Akio Mori hit for 11 and Jim Oshiro for 9, while Hank Hasegawa paced Butte with 15.

The JCCAs took the consolation tilt handily, 59-29 behind efforts of 13, 12 and 10 points by George Saito, Roy Yamazaki and Jim Miyauchi. Trick Oikawa and Hank Hasegawa were tops for Butte with 15 and 13.

Held in check in the opening half of the championship game, Busseis ran roughshod over the Combines in the second canto. Playing with only six men, Combines couldn't keep up with coach Roy Kitagawa's red-and-white raiders who cut loose with 14 points in the third quarter and put on a 23-point display in the final 15 minutes.

BUSSEIS (60) — Kitagawa 18, S. Koyata 16, M. Koyata, Hironaka 4, Takaguchi 6, Saka 8, Matsuno 8, Ikeda, Tsuji.

COMBINES (29) — Oshiro 6, Kimura 2, Urano 4, Maruyama 11, Mori 4, Sakamoto 2, Hori.

Tourney Tips: — The Raymond Motors Challenge Trophy was presented to Bussei captain Mas Kitagawa by Ken Kamitomo . . . Tournament officials were bitterly disappointed in the crowd . . . 20 fans turned up for the games, while over 100 attended the wind-up dance . . . last year's tourney drew well over 200 for both games and dance . . . the tourney took quite a beating as the proceeds were hardly enough to cover the rental of the Sports Centre which seats over 1,000 for basketball . . . Flyers a Solid Third Place As Loop Enters Last Round

Nisei Flyers came from behind to tie Balmy Beach 3-all last Sunday in the last game of the third round. Sho Mori paced the attack with two goals, while Dave Sunohara counted the tying goal. After an absence of two weeks, goalkeeper Rai Adachi played a superb game.

It was an "on" day for the fifth-place Beachers whose goalkeeper made some spectacular saves. Action was very fast and the score was kept low only by the good work of the two net guardians.

Dukes Upset Comets, Edge Angels

by OLD FAITHFUL

HAMILTON, Jan. 21

DUKES 35, COMETS 31

High-flying Comets were brought down to earth by Dukes who overwhelmed the league-leaders in the first half and coasted to victory. Dukes seemed to score at will in the first half, reducing the usually strong Comet attack. Comets appeared hog-tied as Dukes controlled both backboards and gained a half-time 20-8 lead.

Shin Fukumoto with 13 was high scorer for Dukes, ably assisted by Harold Sing and Bill Matsui with 6 each. Dan Kuwabara and Frank Shimoda contributed 12 points each for the losers.

DUKES 37, ANGELS 35

Hard-luck Angels continued to be frustrated by last-minute scores. This week the villain was Kaz Nishimura, who sank the tie-breaker with 10 seconds left. With a tie score in the last 3 minutes, Art Yamamoto scored for Dukes. A freeze was attempted, but Angel Nobby Suzuki was fouled and promptly counted both shots. Shortly after, Kaz Nishimura potted the winning field goal and time ran out with Dukes gaining a well-earned victory.

High Dukes were Stan Tkachuk and Kaz Nishimura with 12 and 11 points. Nobby Suzuki led Angels with 14, assisted by Ted Sekine and Aki Watanabe with 7 each.

VANCOUVER CAGE SCENE

by ABRAHAM OHASHI

Hoop wars on the western front have been just as active as in Hamilton or Toronto. After 7 weeks in the 5-team Vancouver Nisei Basketball League, Teeners (sponsored by National Life Assurance Co.) and Varsity are tied with 10 points on 5 wins and 1 loss. Third are Tad's Sporting Goods with 3 victories while another 4 points behind in 4th are the improving Maria Stella Club as a result of a win at the expense of winless Steveston Jewellery and Appliances.

On Jan. 23 at the UBC Women's Gym, the Varsity five captained by Yosh Saito handed Vancouver Teeners (capt. Ken Yada) 1st defeat to the tune of 38-28. Starring for the UBC men was Yosh Saito, playing a strictly defensive game this season. Edmonton youngster Don Matsuba, loop scoring leader, handled the offensive chores.

In the 2nd game of the day, Capt. Gene Fujisawa's Catholic boys lost their fifth game, bowing to Yosh Uno's Tad's Sporting Goods 42-30. Cellar-dwelling Stevestonians (capt. Yosh Yamamoto) were idle.

Don Matsuba leads individual scoring with 64 (10.6 per game), trailed closely by lanky Ken Yada with 63. The next trio, all members of defending champ Tad's, are Ron Ikeda, Michitaka Tahara, Bob Miyagishima with 10.2 (51), 9.4 (47), and 9.4 (47) respectively. Rounding out the Big Six is Teeners' John Nakata with 9.3 (56 in 6 games).
